From the Director

Dear Friends,

I am honored to present this supplement to the *National Religious Retirement Office's (NRRO) 2025 Annual Report.

Thanks to concerned Catholics nationwide, we raised a record-breaking total of more than $37.1 million through the 2025 collection. During the year, your generosity reached nearly 19,000 senior religious, providing vital support as health-care and other costs continued to rise. Your gifts help ensure that they can continue to live with dignity as they age. For detailed highlights, please download the annual report at retiredreligious.org.

Since the collection began in 1988, Catholics like you have generously given over $1 billion, enabling us to meet the growing need for funding to assist our aging religious in their retirement.

In 2026, the National Religious Retirement Office distributed $40 million in 2025 Direct Care Assistance grants to 261 communities and more than $197,000 in Management and Continuing Education Assistance. These funds give communities the resources they need to provide faithful care, manage long-term retirement concerns, and ensure that senior religious receive the support they deserve.

Your contributions do more than fund care; they also provide essential educational resources and consulting to sustain religious communities. Together, we can continue to meet this growing need with the same steadfast faith and resolve that these women and men religious showed for decades.

We are profoundly grateful for every prayer for our elderly religious and every donation to the Retirement Fund for Religious.

May God bless you and your loved ones for your unwavering commitment to those who have dedicated their lives to faithful service.

In Christ,

John Knutsen
Director

Direct Care Assistance

The 2025 collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious enabled the National Religious Retirement Office to distribute Direct Care Assistance to 261 religious communities. These funds support the immediate care of senior religious and help religious communities bolster retirement savings. Direct Care Assistance is an annual, per capita distribution based on specified criteria, including the level of need. Funds are sent to each eligible community's central house.

Total Direct Care Assistance		261 Communities			$40,000,000.06

An additional 168 religious communities submitted demographic and financial data to the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO). Some provided information but did not request financial assistance. Others applied but did not receive funding because they were determined to be adequately funded under the NRRO distribution formula. A complete list of these communities is available in the National Religious Retirement Office 2025 Congregation Contributions PDF at retiredreligious.org/about-us/annual-report.

Management and Continuing Education Assistance

In 2025, $197,247.27 was distributed in Management and Continuing Education Assistance. Religious institutes may apply for assistance throughout the year. Distributions of up to $5,000 may be used to support ongoing education for key management personnel in areas related to retirement planning, including financial management, eldercare delivery, and fund raising. These funds may also be used to supplement the acquisition of basic management tools, such as a financial forecast or the first-time computerization of accounting or development records.
